The Conference aims to bring together already involved key actors as well as engaged participants, representatives of academic, economic and social partners to discuss and exchange their experiences and research results on different aspects of Social and Humanistic Science. Based on the multi-field methodology-encompassing, inter-disciplinary character of the Conference, we strongly encourage potential participants and stakeholders with background and research interests in the fields of Sociology and Social Work, Criminological Sciences and deviance, European Studies, International Relations and Security Studies, Political Sciences, Pedagogy and Humanities to apply. Therefore, international participation is mostly welcomed and appreciated - researchers, PhD candidates and professionals are gladly invited to submit articles that focus on the topics presented.

Participation Basis and Structure of the Conference Sessions

There are currently numerous challenges to be tackled in approaching past and present subjects on society.

The rationale for the Conference relies on initiating reflection and launching debates on the following main topics: Sociology and Social Work, Criminology and deviance, Violence against Women and Child abuse, European Studies, International Relations and Security Studies, Law and Politics, Pedagogy and Humanities.

The conference sessions for paper presentations are as follows:

- FSS Session 1 – *Sociology and Social Work and COVID-19 new Challenges (accepted languages: English and Italian)
- FSS Session 2 – *Criminology and Deviance (accepted languages: English and Italian)
- FSS Session 3 – *Violence against Women and Child Abuse (accepted languages: English and Italian)
